The BULLETIN

COFFEE HOUR ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION

Mrs. Sarojam Mankau of the Natural Sciences Division will lead a round table discussion on the culture and educational aspects of India. Mrs. Mankau is a native of India and received her BA from Madras University. The discussion, which is sponsored by the Lectures and Public Affairs Committee, will be held Wednesday, July 12 in the Cafeteria from 11:00 to 12:00am. Coffee will be served. Faculty, staff and students are invited to attend.

CAMPUS DEVELOPMENT

Bids were opened on June 15 for the Windbreak Tree Planting and Landscaping Project to be developed behind the Administration Building. Low Bidder was R.O. Boyette Company of Diamond Bar at $5,843. Work will begin August 1 and be completed September 15.

OUTSTANDING PROFESSORS CHOSEN

The year's most outstanding professors among the more than 9,000 faculty in the State Colleges have been selected. The State College Board of Trustees selected Dr. Charles Burdick, professor of history at San Jose State College and Dr. Lewis Yablonsky, professor of sociology at San Fernando Valley State College. Each received a $1,000 "Trustees Outstanding Professor Award" and were selected from recommendations from the faculties of the State Colleges.

NEW SAVINGS BONDS-FREEDOM SHARES NOW AVAILABLE

Forms for purchasing the new United States Savings Bonds-Freedom Shares will soon be made available to all College personnel. Mr. Joe Jerz is in charge of the campaign which will begin next week with canvassers contacting employees. The new Freedom Shares, which are available only through a regular purchase plan, are sold as a companion to the Series E Savings Bonds and only in combination with them. They pay 4.74% interest at maturity, 4½ years after issue.

Additional information on these new bond issues will be given to you by your canvasser or may be obtained by calling Mr. Jerz.

SUMMER SESSION

The Admissions Office has announced that the first Summer Session of the College has an enrollment of 263 students, 210 of whom are full-time.

FACULTY COMMITTEE ON 1967-68 SALARIES

A meeting of the California State Colleges Board of Trustees' Committee on Faculty and Staff Affairs was held Thursday, July 6, at the San Francisco State College. The Committee met under authority delegated by the Board of Trustees for the purpose of taking action on 1967-68 salaries.

1966-67 COLLEGE SCRAPBOOK

The 1966-67 academic year at CSCSB can now be reviewed by means of the scrapbook which has been completed by the Publications Office. A desk and chair will be available to anyone who wishes to take a glance at the past year.

NEWS OF THE FACULTY

William Hume (Activities and Housing ) and Kenton Monroe (Dean of Students) attended a law review workshop held by the Chancellor's Office legal staff at the San Fernando State College, Thursday, July 6.
